

Basic VFR Navigation

Do you recall how exciting it was to plan and fly your first cross-country? Please join us for a discussion of basic VFR navigation skills and a few "remember when" stories! Bring your logbook for a free audit and estimate to finish your training!

Directions: By air: American Flyers is located on the east side of the Addison airport on taxiway Tango. By car: we are located one block north of the Keller Springs and Addison Road intersection. Approximately 1 mile west of The North Dallas Toll Road
